CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

The democratic national committee is preparing to announce next week the amount of its campaign fund and the individual contributors of amounts of $100 and over. The lists, which have been compiled to date and sent to New York from Chicago, show that the campaign fund is a little over $220,000. Of this fund something over $180,000 has been collected from contributors, which, with $42,000 of the Denver convention fund, is the total fund now in the democratic treasury. It was learned that there had been 14 individual contributors of $1,000 each. The Denver headquarters of the national committee has collected $5,000, which is said to include a check of $1,000 from former Senator William Clark, of Montana. The smallest contribution received was one cent, which came in the mail from Monroe, Wash.

The major part of the democratic campaign fund has come from dollar contributions from the democratic press, which started campaign subscriptions.

The fact that Andrew Carnegie has contributed $20,000 to the campaign fund of the republican national committee was announced yesterday by State Chairman Woodruff. Mr. Woodruff also announced that Mrs. Russell Sage has contributed $1,000 to the same fund. There have been no other large contributions from individuals, Mr. Woodruff said, but small sums are coming in from various sources.

FOUND DEAD IN A THICKET.

Ernest Robinson, 24 years old, a member of the Warrenton Rifles, who, with his brother, Walter, disappeared from their home at Warrenton, Va., six weeks ago, was found dead yesterday in a thicket near the railroad tracks at Casanova. There is no clue to the whereabouts of the other brother, who is two years older. The fact that Walter Robinson several times previous to his last disappearance had spent several weeks at a time away from home without notifying his people of his whereabouts furnishes a ray of hope to his family that he may be alive, though prepared to hear any time of his death.

Ernest Robinson's body had evidently been lying in the woods for a fortnight, and it is suggested, though there is no information to corroborate the theory, that he may have been a victim of heart disease or of poisoning in view of the absence of any marks of violence upon the body.

Both the young men were well-known and owned the general store in Warrenton. Many of their relatives and friends, both in that vicinity and near Washington, have joined in the search for the brother, and the authorities of the villages between Warrenton and Washington have been on the lookout.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Lame Back.

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the small of the back, and is quickly cured by applying Chamberlain's Liniment two or three times a day and massaging the parts at each application. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

TO BE WRECKED.

The old schoolship St. Marys, which for 23 years was used for the marine school of New York city, was towed past City Island Thursday on her way to Boston to be torn to pieces.

The St. Marys was built in the Washington navy yard in 1843 as a third-class sloop-of-war and equipped with 20 guns. She was christened after the county in Maryland. She long ago set the example for the Pacific fleet in rounding the Horn and going up the west coast. This was in 1848. During the civil war, she was attached to the Pacific fleet off Panama. She sailed more than 300,000 nautical miles under her own canvas. She was built to chase slavers. The St. Marys was one of the fastest sailing vessels afloat, and two years ago did better than 250 nautical miles in one day.

Only a little cold in the head may be the beginning of an obstinate case of nasal Catarrh. Drive out the invader with Ely's Cream Balm applied straight to the inflamed stuffed up air-passages. No cocaine to breed a dreadful habit. No mercury to dry out the secretion. Price 75c, with spraying tube. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 10, 1908.

MR. BRYAN in his speech in Chicago on Thursday made some observations which should impress themselves upon the voters of the country. Among other things he said: "I have made my fight and I stand the representative of millions of people who believe as I do, and I say to the president that he should stand aside and let his man and me fight it out before the American people." He riddled Mr. Taft's utterances on the tariff, the labor and the trust questions, and scathingly attacked President Roosevelt for interfering in the campaign. The president, he charged, had violated both the spirit and the letter of every civil service law by intimidating the several hundred thousand officeholders, and added:

You do not dare indorse Mr. Roosevelt's degradation of the high office he holds by using it as he is doing to elect his man. He is destroying the civil service, which he claims to defend. He offends the American sense of justice and fair play. He violates a tradition as old as our government. I have a right to condemn his action. If he can use 100,000 officeholders to nominate his man, and use the presidency to elect his man, then a bad president can do it. I have no corporation behind me. I have no rich relatives to furnish money for the campaign. I had but one thing to rely upon and that was my advocacy of things that I believe and that the people of my party believe.

He told his hearers that the president's attempt to use his office to elect a member of his Cabinet to the presidency could no more be defended than a monarchy could be defended because the king happened to be a good king. What the president was doing was offensive to the American idea, and he expressed the belief that the American voters would not tolerate it.

"I believe," he said, "that the president's interference violates a sense of justice that can be found in every human heart, and I have a right to criticise this use of the presidency."

He then gave his own ideal of the presidency, as follows:

I believe that when a man occupies that office and holds in his hand the people's power he ought not to be tempted to use it for his own ambition. I believe that he ought to be there, ready to devote himself to the welfare of his country, and not to concern himself about the nomination of his successor. If I am elected I want to tear from my heart every selfish ambition and for four years give to my country whatever ability I have that I may work to make this again a government in which the people rule and under which every citizen shall draw from society a reward proportionate to the service he renders his fellowman.

THE RED HORSE and its rider, which we are told are to take peace from the earth, seem to be about to come forth. A war spirit is apparent in the Balkans which may end in setting all Europe ablaze. The black horse of famine and the pale steed with death in its wake have recently appeared in Russia, the Philippines and other parts of the globe, and now earthquake shocks in southwestern Russia are causing serious panics among the inhabitants. Many persons have been injured in attempting to escape from buildings. Several railroad bridges have been shaken to such an extent that trains on all roads have been ordered to reduce their speed to seven miles an hour. While in our own country there have been no epidemics, famines, wars or earthquakes, thousands of people have recently been thrown out of employment with the winter almost at their doors. Wars and rumors of war, famines, pestilence and earthquakes have always been regarded as accompaniments of the latter days.

MR. HENRY WATTERSON made his only speech of the campaign at Louisville, Ky., Thursday night. Speaking of the Roosevelt administration he said:

I believe the people will sweep this would-be autocrat and the crowd of beggars on horseback behind him from the seats of the mighty from which they would mount to absolutism outright. If they do not, then, indeed, they deserve two terms of Taft to be followed by life terms of Roosevelt.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.

Washington, Oct. 10.

George R. Peck, general counsel for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, told the president today that he did not believe the railroad working vote was going in a bunch to any presidential candidate. Peck believes that the republican and democratic candidates will get their usual strength from this vote.

Cholera has claimed approximately 12,000 victims in the Philippines since January 1, according to a report made to the Public Health Service, by Chief Quarantine Officer McClintic, at Manila. Up to August 15, there had been 12,316 cases, and 7,830 deaths and since then the average number of death per week has been more than 500. These figures cover all the provinces, in many of which the conditions are much worse than in Manilla. In the week ended August 22, there were 1,005 cases, and 703 deaths in the archipelago. An official report from St. Petersburg, sent in the latter part of September says: "The alarming situation continues. The Neva is contaminated. Most cases now occur in the old quarter of the city, near the Royal Palace Schools, poorhouses, and other public institutions have been converted into hospitals, but still the supply of physicians, nurses, hospital accommodations, ambulances, etc., is insufficient. "During the week ended September 19 there were 2,018 cases and 620 deaths."

Col. Wm. F. Stewart, coast artillery corps, has been recommended to the president by the army retiring board for retirement from active service, because of physical disability incurred in the course of his military duties. The report of the board was drawn up today by Captain Charles R. Howland, the recorder and, after being reviewed by the members this afternoon and approved it was signed by Brig. Gen. William P. Hall, president of the board. The report was promptly started on its way to the president through the regulation military channels. Regardless of any action taken by Secretary of War Wright, whether he approves or disapproves of it it will be forwarded by him to the president for final action.

This was a day of political activity at the White House, with indications pointing to further consideration of how the Gompers assault on Judge Taft might be modified and organized labor directed in its voting course to the republican ticket.

JEALOUSY CAUSES DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

A double and what may prove a triple killing took place about 8 o'clock Thursday night at the home of Charles Fair, six miles from Manassas, when Ed Fair shot and instantly killed Al Fair, his brother, and in the same manner wounded Tuck Posey, his brother-in-law, who in turn killed Ed Fair with an axe. Ed Fair, a native of Fairfax county, some years ago married Miss Posey and moved to Baltimore to live. For some reason Fair's wife left him not long since and returned to her home in Prince William. Several months ago Ed Fair came back to his old home and endeavored to effect a reconcilliation with his wife, but she would not consent to live with him.

Thursday night Fair went to the home of his brother, Al Fair, who is unmarried, and found his wife and her brother, Tuck Posey, there. In a rage of jealousy Ed Fair returned to his house, procured his gun and filled his pockets with shells. He retraced his steps to the house of Al Fair, declaring that he was going to kill his wife and any one else who attempted to interfere with him. Entering the room, in which his wife, his brother and brother-in-law were, he leveled the gun at his wife's head. Al Fair sprang between Mrs. Fair and his brother and received a load of buck-shot full in the head.

Beyond all control Ed Fair was about to fire a second load into the body of his prostrate brother when Tuck Posey grabbed him and endeavored to take the gun from his grasp. In the scuffle the gun was discharged, a part of the load taking effect in Posey's side and back. Both men fell and in some unaccountable manner Posey got on top of Fair. Posey then called to Mrs. Fair to bring him an axe. She did so and with it Posey brained the man who started the trouble.

Dr. J. M. Lewis was summoned from Manassas, but when he arrived the Fair brothers were dead. Posey will probably recover. This is but another tragedy to be added to a chapter of tragedies that have occurred in this same family in several years. Sometime ago Willie Beavers, a son-in-law of Charles Fair, the latter of whom was the father of the two boys killed Thursday night, made an unsuccessful attempt to kill his father-in-law. Three years ago Beavers tried to kill his wife in Fairfax county and Wm. Simpson, who lives just below this city, killed Beavers in an effort to save the life of Mrs. Beavers.

Mrs. Beavers then went to live with Silas Putnam near Falls Church. Last year Putnam murdered Mrs. Beavers and then took his own life. The body of Mrs. Beavers was taken to Pince William county for interment and her father, Charles Fair, dropped dead at the grave. A few months ago Ashel Posey, father of Tuck Posey, was killed by a fall.

A coroner's jury held an inquest yesterday afternoon and held Tuck Posey and Mrs. Ed Fair responsible for the killing of Mrs. Fair's husband.

[A gentleman who has just returned from Manassas says that Mrs. Fair is the one who wielded the axe. He also says that Tuck Posey will recover.]

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Joseph O. Conner, editor of the Rochester, N. Y., Post Express, died this morning.

The Chalmers-Detroit, driven by W. R. Burns, flashed over the line winner in the Jericho stakes, at Motor Parkway, New York, today, going the 140.76 miles in 3 hours 2 minutes and 36 seconds. Another Chalmers-Detroit won the second place.

Luring his estranged wife to Philadelphia by a message announcing his own death, Fred Weisman, of Newark, N. J., shot her down in a room in the Hay Market Hotel today and then blew out his own brains. The woman is in the Samaritan Hospital and has a chance to recover.

On the trail of what they now believe to have been a cruel murder, New York police authorities today have taken Mrs. Frances McLeod to Belford, N. J., to identify, if possible, the body of the child buried there as that of her son Harold who disappeared from his Brooklyn home a week ago last Wednesday.

In danger of complete defeat in his plans for a general cleaning up of St. Petersburg to guard against a recurrence of the cholera epidemic, Premier Stolypin is trying now to alarm the capital's commercial interests by pointing out that the city is doomed as a business center unless prompt steps are taken to make it a reasonably healthy place in which to live. The cholera cases have fallen to about 100 a day, due to the increasing cold. One of the new cases was found in the Souvorin theater during a performance and its discovery create a panic.

Second Marathon Race.

London, Oct. 10.—Forty runners began a second Marathon race today over the same course on which John J. Hayes won everlasting honor in the Olympic contest from Windsor Palace to the Stadium. One American was entered Percy Smallwood, the other runners being from European countries. Henri Siret of France won the race here today.

Virginia News.

Mr. John W. Kern, democratic vice-presidential candidate, ended his tour in Virginia, speaking at Fincastle and Clifton Forge yesterday.

Marvin Nelson, son of the late Joseph H. Nelson, died in Washington, and his remains were taken to Warrentown for interment Wednesday.

Edward Dilger, aged 26, son of Gen H. Dilger, of Front Royal, yesterday, dropped dead at he thome of his friend, Dr. M. L. Garrison, where he was visiting.

Fenton M. Love, who for many years has represented Loudoun county in the house of delegates, announces that he will not be a candidate for re-election. This leaves the field clear for the present to Dr. B. F. Noland, of Ashburn.

Miss Helen Miller Gould, of New York, is touring the valley by automobile with a party of six, traveling in two cars. After spending the night at Woodstock they left to go to Hot Springs today.

Miss Lizzie Tharp, of Front Royal, and Mr. William L. Campbell, of Luray, went to Hagerstown on the 3.20 a. m. Norfolk and Western train yesterday, and were married after arrousing from their sleep, the clerk of the court and a minister.

Thomas Purnell, who was shot by his brother Andrew, appeared in court at Suffolk yesterday and pleaded that mercy be shown the accused. Justice Deberry let the youth off with six months. Andrew was soon to have been married, and shot his brother because financial aid was refused.

After remaining unconscious since last Monday, when he was thrown from a moving street car, C. D. Byrd, aged 28, died at Roanoke City Hospital yesterday from his injuries. Byrd was standing on the platform of the car when it turned a corner, and lost his balance.

Maj. William Urit Durrette died at his residence, near Mount Pleasant Thursday, after a long illness, aged ninety years. Maj. Durrette served with distinction in the Confederate army in the Fifty-fifth Regiment Virginia Volunteers and was in Pickett's charge at Gettysburg.

Abraham P. Dehart, a plumber of Norfolk, badly mutilated by a freight train on the Norfolk and Western Railway in that city, last March, was last night awarded $20,000 damages for the injuries received. It is the largest verdict for personal injuries ever found in a Norfolk court. Dehart lost an arm and a leg and his other hand was crushed.

Commonwealth's Attorney E. W. Hubard, of Buckingham county, has asked the police departments of the cities and towns of Virginia and bordering states to watch out for the four outlaws, who, it is believed, have left their haunts near Arvonia and gone to other climes. Mr. Hubard says a reward of $450 hangs over the head of the men.

Richard Banks, living at Forest Hill, Richmond, was yesterday standing close to the cage peering in at the animals when a big cat sprang upwards and fixed her claws in his neck. There was at once a stampede of the crowd of people in the tent, the women adding their screams of fright to the confusion. One of the attendants grabbed the cat by the neck and forepaws and forced it to let go its hold.

Lucy Mitchell, a white woman, 40 years old, who last Saturday killed Miss Minnie McBryde, the 17-year-old daughter of James McBryde, a Franklin county farmer, was taken to Roanoke jail yesterday for safekeeping. She had been confined in the Franklin county jail, at Rocky Mount, since the killing, but threats of lynching had become so general that the authorities removed her to Roanoke. The Mitchell woman said that she and Miss McBryde quarreled about a trivial matter, and she hit Miss McBryde on the head with an axe. The Mitchell woman was a domestic in the McBryde home.

Mrs. Fred Bender, aged 32 years, of Cape Charles, while temporarily deranged, deliberately walked in front of a New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk express train, yesterday, and was instantly killed. Mrs. Bender, after dressing herself in red, white and blue paper, started from her home with her two children, aged 3 and 5 years, walking on the railroad tracks, which are near her home. Her children yelled frantically, warning her of her danger. Mrs. Bender had made an unsuccessful attempt to drown herself a few months ago. Her husband, who is a prominent mill owner, was in the woods nearby at work at the time and was an eye witness of the terrible tragedy, but was unable to reach her in time to prevent the act.

BLANKET MORTGAGE.

A mortgage to secure an issue of $1,000,000 5 per cent. bonds, consisting of 1,000 bonds of the par value of $1,000 each; payable September 1, 1958, was recorded in Washington, yesterday, by the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company upon its property. The Girard Trust Company, of Philadelphia, is named as trustee.

It is stated that the object of the company, which operates a trolley line from the Virginia end of the Aqueduct bridge to the National cemetery at Arlington, and one to Fall Church, is to redeem two bond issues now on the property. New roadway about to be built, and new equipment to be purchased, are to be paid for out of the issue.

Stock Exchange Denounced.

New York, Oct. 10.—Denouncing the New York Stock Exchange as a gigantic vampire which sucks out the life blood of the country's toilers, declaring it a gambling den pure and simple and advocating the abolition of speculative trading in stocks and of the ticker, R. F. Buchanan, organizer and manager of the defunct stock brokerage house of A. O. Brown & Co., today gave out an interview unparalleled in the annals of the street, for its denunciation of the exchange.

Denies Marriage.

Liverpool, Oct. 10.—"I am not married to Mr. Thomas." This was a statement made today by Miss Sylvia Speer, the Atlanta, Ga., heiress who was reported to have married her father's chauffeur, Russell Thomas, and who was hustled off to Europe by her mother as a result of the marriage. Mrs. W. A. Speer and her daughter arrived on the Campania Other than to deny the marriage neither mother nor daughter would make a statement. Miss Speer is the daughter of the wealthy Georgian, and her reported matrimonial venture caused a sensation in Atlanta society.

Reports from the provinces show that the typhoon which prevailed at Manila, last Sunday inflicted considerable damage. The new town of Taft, on the Island of Samar, is said to have been completely destroyed.

A special train left Washington yesterday for Fort Smith, Ark., carrying 100 prisoners, transferred from the United States jail to the Fort Smith penitentiary, because of the crowded condition in the Washingtonin stitution.

The Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterways Association yesterday passed a resolution which says that when railroad transportation is inadequate it devolves on the national government to give adequate transportation to developing the waterways.

Through the arrest of Lottie Carrol, of Brooklyn, the police believe they have secured the missing link of evidence with may connect Theodore Whitman as principal with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lena Whitman, in the Lampback swamp, Harrison, N. J., last Christmas night.

One man was killed another received probably fatal injuries, while a score of others were hurt, none dangerously, in a collision between two Boston and Northern Electric cars on Main street in the Bradford district of Haverhill, Mass., yesterday.

Elizabeth, aged four years, daughter of James Lewis, of Consolidation Mines, near Frostburg, Md., was burned to death while playing with companions who were burning leaves. The child attempted to light a match and her clothing caught fire. She lived but a short time.

Rev. Israel Leander Townsend, who was chaplain of the House of Representatives in 1876, and for several years rector of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, Washington, D. C., died on Thursday at his home, 233 Greene avenue, Brooklyn, in his eighty-first year.

A police officer was badly beaten up and half a dozen students were placed in jail as the result of a small sized riot at the University of West Virginia at Morgantown, W. Va., yesterday. Several hundred students attending a performance at the Swisher Theater pelted the chorus girls with eggs and decayed vegetables. While the girls were dancing the vegetables and eggs were thrown on the stage, with the result that the dancing ceased.

Because Walter C. Drury, the box-office man at Chase's Theater, Washington, refused to sell him two seats, Robert G. Forrester, who says he lives in St. Paul, Minn., last night pulled a revolver from his pocket and shoved it into the man's face, "You had better hand over those tickets," he said, twirling the revolver. "Evidently you do not know who I am." Forrester pulled back the lapel of his coat and flashed a small nickel-plated badge. "This entitle me to admission," he said. Policemen Catts and Grimsley, who were passing, rushed in and arrested Forrester. At the station house it was found that the revolver was not loaded. The prisoner said he was an employe of the Department of Commerce and Labor and that the badge he wore entitled him to carry a revolver. He is locked up on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Balkan Situation.

London, Oct. 10.—The gravest fear in London diplomatic circles today is that Servia will precipitate a war before the other powers have had time to straighten out the Balkan tangle.

If Servia will delay but a few days, the belief is strong here that England, France and Russia can effect a conference that will arrange a peaceful settlement. If the Servian hot heads carry the day the foreign office will not predict the outcome, other than to say that it will invite the obliteration of the Servian empire.

England has sent assurances to Turkey that she will checkmate the reported plan of Egypt to throw off the suzerainty of Turkey. England is perfectly satisfied with the status quo in Egypt as to all intents and purposes the Khedive's country is now a possession of England, even though an annual tribute is paid to Turkey.

The admiralty announced today that it would soon have twelve English warships in the Aegean sea. Their dispatch is for the purpose of preventing the allegiance of Crete to Greece. Crete has already thrown off the Turkish yoke, but Greece, which at first announced that she would accept the union, against her better judgment has not officially acted, and England's course will undoubtedly prevent the consummation of this move.

Belgrade, Oct. 10.—Servia today had the sole alternative of a war against Austria or a civil war.

Great throngs of infuriated people, thousands of whom flocked into the city from the rural sections, are now surrounding the parliament building, the king's palace and the public buildings, threatening to "tear the city to pieces" unless the national assembly declares war against Austria.

Troops have repeatedly been forced to repel attacks against the Austrian legation, and were it not for the guard that has been thrown about the legation, there is no doubt but the maddened Servians would wreck the place and slay the Austrian minister and the attaches. Many have been hurt in rioting around the legation.

The Servian premier admits that war is apparently unavoidable and the shelling of Belgrade by the Austrian gunboats that are even now training their guns on the city from their anchorage in the Danube is momentarily expected.

Today's situation is a complete reaction from the calmer feeling that possessed the city during a part of yesterday.

The Skupshtina met in extraordinary session this morning and its conversation was amid much disturbance. It is morally certain it will accede to the demands of the people. The lawmakers themselves are largely in favor of war and with the backing of nine-tenths of the populace the king and his ministers will be overridden.

Mysterious Deaths.

New York, Oct. 10.—Bound face to face with rope and wire, the bodies of a man and woman, expensively clad, were found today floating on the waters of Jamaica bay, and the Brooklyn police are investigating what promises to be one of the deepest mysteries in years. Murder or suicide? That is the question. That the suicide theory is possible is indicated by the fact that to the woman's wrist was wired a handsome alligator bag containing mutilated letters and a lone $20 bill. All marks of identity had been effaced from the two victims. The woman was a blond about thirty. On her finger was a wedding ring. She had never known privation nor had the man who died with her. His hands were well kept and in his pocket was a handsome gold watch and chain

Fourteen Men Drowned.

Hamburg, Oct. 10.—Fourteen members of the German steamer Nipponia's crew were drowned today in a collision between the Nipponia and the Pretoria in a fog off Scheveningen. The Pretoria, which belongs to the Hamburg-American line, was not damaged.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supple energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. Herbert Lytle, driving the Isolk, captured the $1,000 purse in the motor parkway sweepstakes at New York today. His time for the full distance, 234.6 miles, was 3 hours 39 minutes 10 seconds, an average of about 65 miles an hour.

Willis I. Norton, only son of ex-Judge L. M. Norton, of Newark, N. J., was killed near Lyons, N. Y. early today by a passenger train.

ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL.

At the first meeting of the season of the Board of Managers of the Alexandria Hospital, a resolution was passed directing the secretary to express through the columns of the Alexandria Gazette their appreciation of the work of all concerned in the effort to make a success of "Alexandria Hospital Day" at Luna Park, August 19th.

In pursuance of this action of the board, the secretary would hereby extend their most hearty thanks to the executive committee in charge of the programme for "Alexandria Hospital Day," to the auxiliary society, to the proprietors of Luna Park, and to the general public, whose patronage, so generously bestowed, contributed largely to make the day a success and by so doing added a liberal sum to the funds of the institution.

THE GIRL AND THE BEE.

A Story of the Ignorance of a City Girl.

The city girl coming down to breakfast at the farm house and observing a plate of honey on the table said: "Oh; I see you keep a bee."

That's about the way some people talk about the blight of baldness—just as if a bald head was something one got all at once instead of being the result of long depletion by an insidious germ which thrives upon the roots of the hair and succumbs to only one known remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Newbro's Herpicide is not a tonic any more than electricity is a fluid. It is an exterminator, pure and simple.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

A called meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night to take action on the resignation of Policeman John F. Henderson. All the commissioners were present except Mayor Fred Paff, who is out of the city. About 12 applicants for the position were on hand anxious to succed Mr. Henderson, but the board concluded to postpone the election until the next regular meeting October 21. The commissioners called attention to the fact that every applicant must be a qualified voter under 45 years of age, must not be less than 5 feet 8 inches tall nor weigh less than 145 pounds, and must make application in his own handwriting and appear before the board for examination. It is understood that a majority of those who have applied are barred by reason of failure to pay the capitation tax, which is a prerequisite to voting.

FINED TWENTY DOLLARS.

Early last night a woman living in the southeastern section of the city went to the house of another woman residing in the same neighborhood and, it is alleged, threw a stone against the door. When the mistress appeared she was assaulted by the woman who threw the stone and her right eye blackened. A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the assailant, and the case was heard in the Police Court this morning. According to the statement of the complainant, the accused struck her with a stone and also used a horsewhip. The defendant denied having used a stone or whip, but asserted that she wielded a small stick. Neither party had any witnesses, and the assailant, who acknowledged having committed the assault, was fined $20. She claims that the complainant in the case has alienated the affection of her husband and broken up her household. This the complainant denies.

DEATH OF HENRY STRAUSS.

Ex-Mayor Henry Strauss died at his home on Prince street, near Royal, shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. His death was due to the rupture of a blood vessel of the brain. Mr. Strauss had been in feeble health for some time, he having been a sufferer from organic disease. He was, however, on the streets a few days ago, and there were no indications that his decease was so near. Mr. Strauss leaves a widow and a daughter, Mrs. Phil. Leterman, of Charlottesville. He had been married twice. The funeral will take place Monday evening at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Strauss was born in Germany August 24, 1835. He came to this country when but twelve years of age, and was in Alexandria a short time during his boyhood days. He subsequently went to Georgia. He began life at the lowest rung of the ladder by doing a boy's work in a store at a small salary, but in a short time, by industry, mercantile instincts and a reputation for responsibility, he was enabled to become the proprietor of a growing business. When the civil war began he was a member of a military company in Georgia, and being an ardent Southerner seemed destined to become a Confederate soldier during the four years' war. He performed home guard duty for a time, but when the regiment was being prepared to be sent to the front he was rejected on account of his stature, he not coming up to the required height. About the time hostilities ceased he returned to Alexandria, where he afterwards lived. Impulsive and open in the declarations of his sentiments, one of his first adventures upon his return here was his arrest and imprisonment for being intemperately bold in expressing his opinions of the federal government. Mr. Strauss prospered in business, the years which followed the war being phenomenal ones in a commercial way, and in about two decades he had amassed what might be termed a fortune in Alexandria. About a quarter of a century ago he was elected a member of the Board of Alderman from the Second ward, and he almost immediately became a prominent figure in the city's affairs. He was especially instrumental in the funding of the city's debt in 1879 and labored assiduously for his adopted city in many other matters concerning its interests. For a long time he was chairman of the committee on light and an active and well-posted member of the finance committee. He was finally selected as president of the Board of Aldermen and was acting mayor in 1887 when the death of Mayor John B. Smoot occurred. He was a candidate for the mayoralty before the City Council a few weeks later, but was defeated by Mr. E. E. Downham, and in the spring of 1889 was a condidate before the people for the same position, but was again defeated by Mr. Downham. There were four candidates in the field at the time—E. E. Downham, John G. Beckham, W. H. May and the subject of this notice. In 1891 he was again in the field. This time Mr. Downham was his only competitor, and Mr. Strauss was elected by a good majority. His course in the mayor's office was marked by common sense and conservatism, and he was given a second term, being re-elected in 1893, no opposition candidate appearing, his course having been endorsed by democrats and republicans alike. At the close of his term he was elected a member of the Police Board from the Second ward. For many years he was a member of the School Board from the same ward. Apart from political positions, he was for a long time one of the directors of the First National Bank and held similar positions in building associations. He was also a member of the Columbia Fire Company and one of the executive committee. A few years ago Mr. Strauss was elected a member of the Common Council from the Second ward, a position he filled up to the 1st ultimo, he having declined to be a candidate for re-election. Mr. Strauss had been a Mason since early manhood and at the time of his death he was a member of Alexandria-Washington Lodge. He was also a member of the Merchants' Club and Alexandria Lodge of Elks.

Mr. Strauss's circle of acquaintances was probably larger than that of any other person in Alexandria, and his open, jovial good nature won him many friends. Neither fortune nor position changed his demeanor, and throughout life he was the same good-natured, sympathizing friend to those he deemed worthy of his esteem, and clung to them through evil and good report while his intimates were not the opulent or prominent in this world. There was nothing of the unstable in him; the man who tied to him had nothing to apprehend, as in him there was no variableness nor shadow of turning, and many who read these lines will realize the loss of one of the best friends they ever had. While of Jewish birth and holding to the faith of his fathers, he was peculiarly conservative in his religious views. In fact his nearest friends and confidants were neither of his faith nor kin, and while he adhered to the system into which he had been born he scorned the thought of unchurching any one and firmly believed all struggling souls would eventually reach a better world, though they took different roads in their journeys thereto. Hence he never failed to open his purse for the benefit of any denomination when an appeal was made to him nor did any one needing help apply to him in vain.

ACCIDENT ON RAILWAY.

What may prove a serious accident to an employe and which badly jarred other passengers occurred on the W., A. & Mt. Vernon Railway, just after the 7:30 train this morning, generally known as the milk train, in charge of Motorman R. Vaden and Conductor R. Makely, left Mount Vernon for this city. This train on Saturday mornings is generally crowded with passengers, but on this occasion about 10 people constituted the number in the milk car. One of these was Justice Wright, who gave a thrilling account of the accident. He said he was seated in front of Mrs. Parker, mother of Mr. Maurice Parker, of this city, when the cars collided and was thrown over the seat and found himself flat on his back in the middle of the aisle. The fronts of both cars were smashed to splinters and the motorman of the milk train was wedged in the debris and badly hurt. He was released from his position and brought to this city where Officer Sampson assisted in carrying him to the Alexandria Hospital. The cause of the accident is hard to understand. A colored man employed on the work car in charge of Motorman McBryde which was on the siding at Herbert Springs, below Arcturus, waiting for the northbound train from Mt. Vernon to pass, is said to have opened the switch and failed to close it, for what purpose he could not explain, and the result was that the milk train collided with the car standing on the siding. A number of passengers were badly shaken up, but the only one seriously hurt was the motorman of the milk train. The following were the crew and those injured:

R. Vaden, motorman of milk train, head seriously cut and one leg badly injured.

R. Makeley, conductor of milk train, back wrenched slightly and side bruised.

Mrs. Parker quite badly hurt about the limbs.

Other passengers badly shaken up and slightly bruised.

Dr. Wm. M. Smith, the company's surgeon, hurried to the scene and did what he could for the sufferers.

The wrecking crew later went to the scene of the accident and brought the damaged cars to this city.

ACCUSED DISMISSED.

George W. Burgess, who was arrested by Deputy U S. Marshal Glover at the instance of Postoffice Inspector Matthews who charged him with sending scurrilous postal cards through the mail, who was brought before Commissioner Garnett on the 31 instant and bonded to appear today, was again brought before the commissioner this afternoon. Judge Nicol and Mr. R. A. McIntyre, of Warrenton, were counsel for the accused, and after a close examination of the government witnesses, it was decided that there was no evidence to connect Burgess with the affair, and he was dismissed.

TAKEN TO WASHINGTON.

Chas. James, colored, who was taken in custody yesterday by Chief Goods and Officer Nicholson as a suspicious character and taken to the station house and locked up proves to be a first class thief. After his incarceration the chief notified the Washington authorities and yesterday afternoon Detective Trunboe came to this city, examined the man and went back and reported the result of his investigation. This morning Detective Mullen came from Washington and informed Chief Goods that James was wanted there for robbing Mr. Lorenzo Williams of three suits of clothes, suit case and various other articles. The prisoner was taken to Washington by the detective.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Charles James, colored, charged with being a suspicious character, had his case continued.

Mat. Williams, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was sent to jail for ten days.

Four young men, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2 each.

A woman, charged with assaulting a neighbor, was fined $20.

A white boy, charged with taking possession of a bicycle belonging to another youth, was dismissed upon returning the same.

EX-SENATOR MACHEN SPEAKS.

Ex-Senator Lewis H. Machen addressed the Virginia Democratic Association, at the Riggs House, in Washington, last night. In the course of a well-timed address he said that the time has come when the majority were going to throw off the yoke of the minority and do the dictating themselves. He said: "The republican rule appears to me like that which has come down from ancient times, and which has been handed down through the countries of Europe and Asia, even to the present day. Its rule has been monarchical." He dwelt on the question of labor, capital, and the tariff, and told his hears of the difference between the way the democrats and republicans handled it. He closed by saying the republican party was under the domination of those working for corporations, and that the present chief executive was trying to force down the throats of the American people his candidate and his policies.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 10, 1908.

GIRL SLAIN ON EVE OF WEDDING.

With unusual energy the police authorities of Wadsworth, O., are endeavoring to unravel the mystery of the murder of Ora Lee, 21 year old, a handsome factory girl, whose body, pierced by two bullets, was found early yesterday on the road between Wadsworth and the hamlet of Custard Hook.

Guy Rasor, the man whom Miss Lee was to have married today, is detained by the police pending developments in an investigation. Rasor denies all knowledge of the tragedy, and in support of his denial exhibits a marriage license procured at Wooster on Thurday.

No positive motive for the murder of the young woman has come to light. The band of farmers, that hurried to the scene of the murder as soon as word of the tragedy was received, met Guy Rasor on the road walking toward Wadsworth.

The police theory is that Miss Lee was killed while riding in a buggy with a male friend. The principal clew that led to the detention of Guy Rasor is the fact that along the road where the murder was committed are plainly seen the tracks of a horse with one shoe missing. An examination of the stables at the Rasor home disclosed the fact that one of Rasor's horses has a shoe missing from one of its front feet. Rasor refuses any explanation concerning this feature of the case. He declares he can prove an alibi.

Another police theory is that a rival for the affections of Miss Lee may have shot the girl on learning of her approaching marriage to Rasor.

Miss Lee left Wadsworth on Thursday ostensibly to prepare for her wedding. When the body was found the hands were folded over her breast and the legs straightened out as if the corpse had been carefully arranged after death. The girl's suitcase was on the ground beside her. Her handbag was still on her right wrist, and in her left hand she clutched a handkerchief. There was no evidence of a struggle. A hundred yards from the body tracks in the dust indicated where a horse and buggy had been hitched to the fence.

Rasor apparently is bowed with grief. He declares the last time he saw his fiance was Wednesday night, when they went driving.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Company and Richard Gibson.

RULING FOR LIQUOR MEN.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Capers has rendered a decision which will put a stop to the practice among some rectifiers and wholesale liquor dealers of selling the same brand of whisky under different names.

The new ruling is that "any person firm or corporation carrying on business as rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer at one place or time under different names must pay a separate special tax for each name or style under which the business is done."

This is a reversal of the ruling of former Commissioner Yerkes, and is the result of the careful watch kept in prohibition states on whisky shipments. When the brand of the whisky shipped becomes too well known it often leads to the prevention of further shipments. It was found that when such prevention becomes effective, other lots of whisky are shipped into these states by the same dealer under other names. This trick led to action on the part of the internal tevenue bureau.

Quartermaster sergeants of the various infantry commands in this state will receive salaries of $15 per month hereafter so long as they perform their duties to the satisfaction of the company commanders and the adjutant general.
